CUSTOMER NAME: Merrill Lynch – 4/28/03

PARTNER/VAD NAME:

SECTION I - Approval Requests:

HQAPP Requests:

In addition to the previously approved HR apps license deal, the customer is considering an Outsourcing contract as well. These (2) deals may sign separately, but we are keeping them on the same Exec Summary for consistency. Outsourcing approvals needed are as follows:

1. Approval to attach our Service Level Standards as part of the EBSO contract.
2. Approval to attach our Computer and Admin Policies as part of the contract, noting that they are subject to change.

Previously approved on 3/27/03:

HQAPP Requests:

1. Request reapproval of all previously approved terms and discounts from Q3 as stated below. Negotiations are ongoing and have moved into Q4.

HQAPP Requests:

Oracle uses Merrill Lynch's paper (a "Schedule") for the Ordering Document as previously agreed to in their Master Agreement. The following changes are being requested for Schedule 128 for this HR deal. Executive Management (Keith Block) has been engaged with the customer on this deal.

1. In our standard Technical Support paragraphs and in each case that this term appears throughout the Schedule, replace the term "Ordering Document" with "Schedule". Also, replace the term "Programs" with "Licensed Products". This is consistent with defined terms agreed upon in Merrill Lynch's Master Agreement.
2. Support Cap: Flatline support through Year 5, as the TCO calculation for this PSFT replacement included maintenance costs and needs to be minimized.
3. Delete the sentence in the first paragraph under Technical Support that refers to Oracle's Partner Program because it is not relevant for this order. The sentence to be deleted is bolded below:
 "Technical Support. For purposes of the ordering document, Technical Support consists of Updates Subscription Service, Product Support and/or other annual technical support services Customer may have ordered. If ordered, annual Technical Support is provided under Oracle's Technical Support Policies in effect at the time the services are provided. The Technical Support Policies, incorporated in this Agreement, are subject to change and may contain additional terms, and Customer should review the policies prior to entering into the Ordering Document for the applicable services. Customer may access the current version of the Technical Support Policies at <http://oracle.com/support/index.html?policies.html>. Technical Support acquired with Customer's order may be renewed annually and for the initial two renewal years the technical support fee will not increase by more than 4% over the prior year's fees. If your order is fulfilled by a member of Oracle's Partner Program, the Technical Support fee for the first renewal year will be the price quoted to you by your partner; the Technical Support fee for the second renewal year will not increase by more than 4% over the prior year's fees. If Customer desupports a subset of licenses in a license set, Customer may be required to terminate those licenses. Any cancellation of support may result in the re-pricing of support for Customer's remaining licenses."
4. In the 2nd paragraph of our standard Technical Support language, request approval to add modified MetaLink language as it pertains to the desupport notification time frame as bolded below (this has been approved by Support):

“Oracle reserves the right to desupport its Programs. Customer will be notified in advance when a program is being desupported; Desupport Notices will generally be available 12 months in advance of the desupport date but no earlier than 10 months. Such desupport notices, which are posted at Oracle’s customer support web site, MetaLink (or Oracle's then current customer support web site), contain desupport dates, information about availability of Extended Assistance Support and Extended Maintenance Support and information about migration paths for certain features. The desupport notices are subject to change; Oracle will provide updated desupport notices on MetaLink (or Oracle's then current customer support web site) as necessary.”

For reference, the following is the language from the “Right to Desupport” section in our standard Technical Support Policy:

“Oracle reserves the right to desupport its programs. Customers will be notified in advance when a program is being desupported; Desupport Notices will generally be available 12 months in advance of the desupport date. Desupport Notices, which are posted at MetaLink (under “Product LifeCycle”), contain desupport dates, information about availability of Extended Assistance Support and Extended Maintenance Support, and information about migration paths for certain features. The Desupport Notices are subject to change. Oracle will provide updated Desupport Notices on MetaLink as necessary.”

SECTION III –

New Justification (4/28/03):

Merrill Lynch is a major Oracle applications client. We have the potential to displace PSFT for HR and add EBSO services to the existing revenue stream. The customer is working with a systems integrator, and the service levels need to be clearly understood and integrated with their integration partner.

Previous Justification (3/26/03):

Negotiations began in late February, and we are trying to overcome contractual issues in the next 30 days.

Previous Justification (2/18/03):

This is a major strategic displacement for Oracle over PSFT at Merrill Lynch. Market visibility and impact significant.

1. Consistent language needs to be used per Merrill Lynch's Master.
2. TCO is a key driver for the PSFT displacement decision. Maintenance is a key factor.
3. Partner language does not apply to this Merrill contract.
4. Desupport language leaves open the length of time when notice can be given. Customer wants to ensure that it is protected from a desupport perspective. The current language exposes them to any date that Oracle chooses to desupport at any point in time. They want to get reasonable duration value for the product they're purchasing from Oracle, and they feel the 10-month request is reasonable.

Previous Justification (12/19/03):

After discussions with Tony Kender and License sales management, we need to request an additional 3% discount for this PSFT Competitive HR replacement. As their fiscal year ends, PSFT has come in to protect their HR install at Merrill and undercut our price as they now feel very vulnerable to being displaced in this major global account. Merrill management continues to engage our technical and functional teams as a decision will be reached next week.

Previous Justification (12/10/02):

This is for a Peoplesoft competitive replacement for the HR Suite and complete ERP commitment to Oracle. The price of PSFT migration to V8.8 is seen as expensive and considered a new implementation for Merrill. We have verified that this price point puts us in a competitive position. Price is the number one key issue for Merrill – both upfront and implementation costs. Oracle is the only other vendor they are considering. This should be viewed as a strategic competitive replacement that will enhance our HR position globally.

Background:

Merrill Lynch was the first and key Financial Services firm that purchased Oracle Financials in 1996 and helped build our product in the financial services vertical. This will be a similar historic opportunity for HR.

Merrill Lynch is very displeased with the PSFT migration track to V8.8, and the relationship has been severely compromised which has opened the door for Oracle. A high-level meeting with PSFT CFO and Merrill underscored price as a key factor. The next phase will be to outsource the entire ERP and HR suite, and Oracle's Tim Chou recently met with Merrill Executives. Oracle successfully demonstrated our HR Suite on 12/3/02 to HR LOB heads and positioned Oracle well in the account.

Key drivers of decision for Merrill:

1. Price
2. Pain (migration risk)
3. Pace (speed of implementation)

Why Approve:

1. Historic opportunity to gain foothold in PSFT core area of strength.
2. Merrill wants to be a strategic partner to assist in the build out of specific features that may be necessary for Financial Services as they did in 1996 with Oracle Financials.
3. Market opportunity would be considerable since Oracle has a strong foothold in Financials within Financial Services and sales model could be leveraged in other accounts that are in the PSFT Upgrade Cycle.
4. Substantial OCS opportunity for implementation.
5. Marquee Outsourcing opportunity.
6. Timing: There will not be another time to replace PSFT HR at Merrill due to upgrade cycle.

Tony Kender's Comments:

I approve the 85% discount for the HRMS suite in order to replace PeopleSoft at Merrill Lynch.

The employee record count is high enough to warrant a deeper discount than usual, as the HR price metric is linear and does not scale to market price requirements as the ee records get larger.

Most importantly, however, is the highly competitive and strategic nature of this sale. PeopleSoft has their CFO engaged in this deal to "save" their HR install and sell an upgrade to v 8. They have gotten very aggressive with their pricing. If Oracle can replace PeopleSoft in a recognizable market leader like Merrill Lynch, the result will be much greater than the $2.7M in license that we receive.

This win will lead to additional sales that we would not have gotten otherwise.

Without a discount of this level, we simply will not win. With it, we have a fighting chance to motivate the Merrill Lynch executives to unhook PeopleSoft HR and standardize on Oracle.

Additionally, I have mentioned this deal to the executive committee yesterday, all of whom are very interested in getting back into Merrill Lynch with HR, after having lost our initial attempt to win this business 5 years ago.
